Celebrating Certified Perioperative Nurses – March 19

Subject: Honoring Our Certified Perioperative Nurses
on Certified Nurses Day ❤️

Dear Team,

As we celebrate Certified Nurses Day, I want to take a moment to recognize and honor our incredible Certified Perioperative Nurses whose expertise, dedication, and commitment to excellence make a meaningful impact every single day.

Certification is a powerful indicator of professional mastery reflecting countless hours of study, hands-on experience, and an unwavering commitment to patient safety and quality care. Our certified perioperative nurses bring advanced knowledge, steady leadership, and exceptional clinical judgment to every procedure, ensuring our patients receive the highest standard of perioperative care.

Today, we proudly celebrate their achievements and extend our deepest gratitude for all they do.

Please join me in recognizing our certified perioperative nursing team:

About Certified Nurses Day™

Certified Nurses Day™, celebrated on March 19, honors certified nurses for their expertise, commitment, and dedication to high-quality patient care. Established in 2008, Certified Nurses Day™ recognizes nurses who hold a national board certification in their specialty and commemorates the birthday of Dr. Margretta 'Gretta' Madden Styles, a pioneer in nursing certification.
